Information Pack for Participants

Tee Set Matchplay Championship 2012

Notes for guidance

- 1 The results of the first round establishes to which of two brackets players are allocated, winners go into the Emas or Gold bracket while losers go into Kuningan or Bronze.
- 2 The format of the competition once Emas and Kuningan brackets are established is simple knock out.
- 3 Men play off the blue tees or their equivalent, ladies off the red tees
- 4 Play can be at any course at any time, does not have to be at Tee Set
- 5 Use latest Tee Set Handicap list. Made available to you by e-mail every week.
- 6 Use hole h/c indexes for the blues tees. Lady playing a lady use the indexes for the reds
- 7 Player have to agree the details of when and where they play
- 8 Matches should be played within 4 weeks. If unavailable then please forfeit to avoid holdin cmchandra@yahoo.com
- 9 In the event of a tie after 18 holes then a putt off is played with the following format:
 - Race to five successful putts
 - If tied at five putts each then putts continue one at a time in sudden death fashion until there is a winner
 - Players choose the distance and place of the putt alternately (minimum 2 meters)
 - One toss of a coin is used to decide who places the first ball AND putts first
- 10 Players will be provided with a weekly handicap index based on PJ
- 11 Players should send results as soon as possible via e-mail to Keith Miller
- 12 A brief summary of anything different, amusing or outstanding would also be appreciated
- 13 The Tee Set Newsletter will provide a monthly summary of results
- 14 The final match, the winner of bracket Emas against that of bracket Kuningan, will be played on the day of the Tee Set Championship
