ROUND 4 – OVERVIEW

Yet again the JIL found themselves wondering what to do in the early morning as hangovers from the night before kicked in and no resuscitating Smootheez to ease the pain. Amazingly traffic down the toll was its usual crazy self which wasn't helped by a cement truck being dragged from 20 metres off the emergency lane and the rubber necked Indonesian drivers stopping to gawp. Wow if they could be so flexible in work and other things then... maybe ? [better not get onto the soap box !!!] Weather looked fine as the ragtag & bobtailed golfers gathered in the JIL room for coffee / lunch / beers. Eventually the assembled throng had their Captains select the pairings for the day ... Well that is with exception [again] of Loose impediments who were two short and even TinCups were one light. The latter maybe have a slight excuse in that the Captain, Vice Captain, Vice Vice Captain and Vice Vice Vice Captain were all away travelling — more about this later. As for the former mentioned team it is becoming embarrassing as it is likely to play a major part in the final scores for the league table and the other teams are paying fees for no competitive game. As the day wore on the clouds built and when the lightening, thunder and eventual rain hit, many teams still had three or four holes to play. With many of these matches extremely close and the outcome in the balance it was agreed that All/Square was probably the most appropriate result and in the spirit of the JIL. Previously after 9 holes the result at cessation of play would be the end result — this was deemed to be dangerous in that several matches could have changed as several losing teams were about to come back to even and also it might prompt dramatic tactics in a battle of nerves or stupidity if one side had decided to play through the lightening and the other with-drawn. Sadly the greens were not in good shape and certainly many a ball was seen to hop skip and jump in several directions and not always towards the hole. More later on this matter.

special note by the Committee

July matches at 09:30 on 21st.

July's fixture will fall in the middle of the Islamic fasting month. So Captains please ensure that you have sufficient players to fill your team.

Comments for JGCC Management

by the committee

The biggest concern this month [having accepted a late tee off time] was the weather or more espe-cially the lightening. Many Groups decided that it was far too close for comfort and were not going to risk life and limb even if the siren had not sounded. In fact it was not until the rain appeared did the siren sound. Whether the siren is auto-matically triggered or is manually sounded the management need to observe the real conditions of play. Lightening is too much of a killer to gamble with and the JGCC must be sufficiently aware of what is happening.

Siren = Safety

Sadly to say this month the greens were in a poor state and in addition to balls not running true there were many greens where here was a lot of grass or places that were bare. We all understand the weather plays a part in the condi-tion of the greens but other courses in Jakarta mange to provide good and true putting surfaces at this time.

How the Matches Fared

by Anthony King

So the apex of the league season has arrived and there were several questions to be asked if the league table was to be brought back into a more balanced state.

CLOGGIES VS. TEESET 4 : 6

Firstly Cloggies were 7 points clear and they were pitted against TeeSet. As some of you will have read in the TeeSet website there was a grim determination in their selection and this proved to be prophetic as they won 6:4. The match of this tie had to be Disney Dave up against Sombrero Sam as both played off 7 handicaps. However, despite only being a couple of shots over par Disney found himself on the wrong end of an ae reaming defeat 7:5 as Sombrero finished 3 under gross. Bloss was against Tim and this was a total contrast in that the least bad score would win the hole and if one went into the stakes then the other would play friendly golf and join them. Sadly on #15 the rug rats came into play and removed a ball from next to the green which resulted in a lost ball and loss of hole. As the match dingdonged it was an agreed half as sensibility took charge once the lightening appeared. Our German speaking Australian Dutchman made a welcome return and settled into comfort of doubles with Pawan but their game against Mel/Nick also ended in the agreed half. The true Orange blooded pairing of Schumaker / Roger continue their run of impressive wins at the expense of Richard/Elvado. The 'north of the border' combo of JustWilliam and Rae, although evenly matched on handicaps, had no answer to Mike/Peter and this was almost as bad an ae reamer result as mentioned above [mathematics meant 7:6 was slightly better !!!!]

SANDBAGGERS VS JLI 8 : 2

Second place Sandbaggers were against a partial JLI and even Grumpy was heard to be chirping as he wrote up 4 points before a ball had been hit. Wobbly had been found a new partner in Dale and this must have been either a sobering pairing for Wobbly or a weaving drive for Dale but never-the-less they managed to overcome Steve [who had spent a long time on the driving range venting his frustrations] / Michael 3:2. For once a family pairing worked as the former Beatle's duo of John Lennon Snr & Jnr took on and scrapped by one up against Louis / Chris. Whilst we didn't hear any post match singing from the Lennon boys they managed to leave most of their belongings behind in the clubhouse after the post-game festivities [interesting handphone numbers ?]. The saving grace for JLI was a most humble captain Brad who selected Craig as his partner and they overcame Multi Coloured Trevor and Kristalman 5:3.

SENTUL SWINGERS VS MAD DOGS 3 : 7

Viggo was leading his team for the final time before he disappears to the fishing waters of this homeland for the three months of summer against Mad Dogs. As always being a player to lead from the front he played against Yati but no doubt his mind was elsewhere as he capitulated 3:2. Iris dressed as though she was one of Robin Hood's band of outlaws took no prisoner with Keith and stamped her way to 2:1 win. Geoff T was having a mental relapse as he thought he was still playing for ISCI [as per his scorecard]. Perhaps this was game tactics as he and Zeno saw off Howard/ Greg 5:4. On the other side of the coin Malcolm/Scott were no match for the irrepressible pairing of Beamer Bob / BlackSheep Joe and Sentul took this 2:1. So the question remained as to Arvid/ James versus Godwin/Gerry match and would this be a real league changer. Not to be as after all was done and dusted they came in All Square.

TIN CUPS VS. POCKSIA 2 : 8

So who was to lead the Tin Cups as their hierarchy of leadership had all run off to distant lands. Frantic calls were made and then it became clear that they needed a Captain of Vice. Searching through their deck of 'not available' it befell to the only remaining regular and Siti [whether she liked it or not] was granted this gratuitous title!!!! Although one short she led her team to an 8:2 victory. Of course as is now expected of TinCups they have an abundance of female players who seem to rise to the matchplay challenge. Siti decided not to play singles and left that to Agnes and Juju who responded with maximum points against Ian and Norman. Captain Siti kept the female flag flying with Bien as they overcame Jennifer/Glen 2:1. Finally the lack of a player showed as James could not handle the combined might of John/Debbie and whilst battling he fell 5:4.

LONGEST DRIVE

Long Driver I the "A" section was Sombrero Sam [Tee Set] and we are not certain if this was with the 3 wood rather than the Driver but it bounced along to 240mts.

"B" flight saw another Tee Setter [Mel] remain unchallenged at 230mts throughout the day.

"Ladies" flight could have come from a number of infamous Big Thumpers but in fact Agnes [Tin Cups] wound up her tiny frame and hit it 240mts.

NEAREST TO THE PIN

"A" flight saw Mike [Tee Set] just pip Bloss to this award at 1.47mts

"B" flight saw James [Mad Dogs] manage to beat the 4mt mark but more importantly beat all others in his section

TURTLE AWARD

The weather put paid to any wor-ty recipient of this award and so it will crawl back into its hidey hole until next month.
